

The Bible and Biblical Languages in Ireland

Spring 2017 Public Lecture Series at the Chester Beatty Library

This series is sponsored by Dublin City University's School of Theology, Philosophy, and Music, The Chester Beatty Library, and the Irish Research Council.

Ireland and the Old Testament: Transmission, Translation, and Significance

Dr Brad Anderson is Lecturer in Hebrew Bible/Old Testament at Dublin City University, and currently serves as President of the Irish Biblical Association. He is the author of An Introduction to the Study of the Pentateuch (Bloomsbury, 2017).

4 May, 13:10

How Arabic became a Jewish and Christian Language

Dr Jonathan Kearney, Lecturer in Jewish and Islamic Studies, Dublin City University and author of Rashi: Linguist Despite Himself (2012).

15 June, 14:00 [for friends of the library]

Speaking in Tongues: The Many Languages of the Chester Beatty Bibles

Dr Jill Unkel is the Curator of the Western Collections in the Chester Beatty Library. She has curated a number of exhibitions including, most recently, Wicked Wit: Daryl's Comic Prints (2015-16), for which she wrote the accompanying catalogue.

27 July, 13:10

This event is organized by Dr. Garrick Allen, the primary investigator on the IRC funded HoskBib project.

hchoskier.blogspot.ie

@HcHoskier

Ollscoil Chathair Bhaile Átha Cliath
Dublin City University

IRISH RESEARCH COUNCIL
An Chomhairle um Thaighde in Éirinn
www.research.ie